

Vijay Mehta Selected for a Peace Award

iCONGO (Indian Confederation of NGO's) has selected Vijay Mehta, Chair of Uniting for Peace, as the Global Indian Karmaveer Purskaar. It is an award for peace and justice and also a recognition for Vijay Mehta's peace work. He is now a noble laureate 2012 – 2013 of the iCONGO team of advisors and mentors. <http://www.icongo.in/homepage.html>

Vijay will be travelling to India to receive the award in person on 26th November. While in India, three book discussions are also taking place in Delhi, Mumbai and Hyderabad of his latest book, The Economics of Killing. www.theeconomicsofkillling.org