

UNITING for P E A C E - Edinburgh Programme

Rev. Brian Cooper invites you to the Annual Inter-Faith Occasion for World Peace

Tuesday July 4 - 7.00pm - St. Mark's Unitarian Church

St. Mark's Church is at the Lothian Road end of Castle Terrace, West End of Princes Street

theme:

" Inspirations for Peace-Making"

Speakers will include:

Dr. Farshid Namdaran in conversation with Rev. Brian Cooper about the ancient faith of ZOROASTRIANISM's early insights for harmony and peace. Iranian-born Dr. Namdaran converted to Christianity from Zoroastrianism "without rejecting it".

Rev. Dr. Georgiana Cameron-Gaiduschek:

"Peace in the Celtic Spiritual Tradition"

Dr. Cameron-Gaiduschek is a scholar in Celtic Studies, as well as artist and film-maker. She is a regular attender at St. Mark's Unitarian Church. Her talk will explore the Christian and Pagan streams in the Celtic Spiritual Tradition and its contribution to harmony and peace.

Aurangzeb Haneef - Alwaleed Centre for Study of Islam

Mr. Haneef, a Research Scholar at the Alwaleed Centre [Edinburgh University], will speak on:

"Non-Violence in Islam" - with special reference to the life of

Abdul Ghaffar Khan - 'The Gandhi of the Indian Frontier'

[Other contributions under negotiation]. The event will include a PEACE MEDITATION by SISTER LOUISA GUPTA of Brahma Kumaris Spiritual University - Prayers from different faith traditions - MUSIC - contemplative SILENCE - Refreshments after event.

:: Please put the date in your diary - and inform your friends! ::

nb: This will be the only publicity notice for this event, dedicated to inter-faith awareness and understanding - and peace-building.

Information - Rev. Brian Cooper - 0131-446-9545