

Uniting for Peace at Campaign for Nuclear Disarmament Annual Conference Bradford 15th – 16th October 2011

Vijay Mehta, Chair Uniting for Peace and Member of the National Board of CND Council and Hur Hassnain, Campaign and Membership Secretary along with Shanti Mehta, a long time CND supporter attended Annual CND Conference at Bradford University on 15th-16th October.

CND Chair, David Webb welcomed the delegates and Kate Hudson, Secretary General gave a presentation in which she highlighted the campaigning initiatives and projects taken up by CND including media coverage over the past year.

During the policy debates Vijay Mehta spoke passionately for nuclear disarmament and took part in the debate on campaigning against Trident Replacement, NATO and Libya, India-Pakistan and CTBT etc.

Hur Hassnain was networking with delegates and got number of endorsements from the upcoming campaign '4D for World Peace'. Uniting for Peace organised a stall at the conference and distributed literature to delegates who attended the conference from many parts of Britain.

Vijay Mehta again elected to the National Board of CND Council whose member he is for number of years.

The conference finished with a reception and was a great networking opportunity for Uniting for Peace.

